The International College of Liberal Arts (iCLA) at Yamanashi Gakuin University is a four-year, American style liberal arts college where the primary language of instruction is English. Students can choose from a wide array of courses in various disciplines, with the innovative and practical curriculum leading to a bachelor's degree in International Liberal Arts.

iCLA combines a truly multi-cultural learning environment with a beautifully traditional Japanese setting in the shadow of Mt Fuji. Located just 90 minutes west of Tokyo, Yamanashi is famed for its breathtaking landscapes, historic sites, hot springs, hiking trails, fruit orchards and vineyards. iCLA offers students the unique opportunity to immerse themselves in the very essence of Japan and its culture, whilst acquiring a contemporary and globally relevant education at our state of the art facilities.

Curriculum:

As part of iCLA's Bachelor of International Liberal Arts students can declare one of the following five majors:

- > Global Business and Economics
- > Political Science
- > Interdisciplinary Arts
- > Japan Studies
- > Psychology

Why Choose iCLA?

- > Truly multi-cultural learning environment in a beautiful Japanese setting
- > Broad Liberal Arts curriculum with many electives and workshops to choose from
- > Small class sizes that increase student and faculty communication and collaboration
- > Positive and Active Learning Environment that builds critical thinking and teamwork skills
